

Thanks Dennis for the dedication, vision and memories. Your light will continue to shine!!!

Dennis presents volunteer Penny Angel with a commemorative brick. Penny was one of many volunteers that were involved in cleaning the original bricks to be used in the reconstruction of the lighthouse.

The Thinker – September 15, 2007 Brick-Laying Ceremony when first bricks were put in place for the lighthouse construction. Dennis is sitting on the porch of the Visitor Center that was under construction.

Volunteers were: Sitting - Elaine Rosenthal, Susie Stanton, and Karen Rudder. Standing - Dennis Barnell, Jim Kemp, Richard Saucer, Terry Kemp, Penny Angel, Kay Barnett, and Neal Smith-Willow
Taken: 10/21/2006

Dennis Barnell breaks smaller chunks of bricks from the large lighthouse pieces salvaged from Little St. George Island in Spring of 2006.
Taken: 10/6/2006

Ed Barnell (left), a member of the SGLA from Chicago, joined his cousin SGLA President Dennis Barnell at the site where pieces of the Light were stored.
Taken: 5/15/2006

Dennis Barnell examines a section of the copper lantern room roof recovered from the Gulf.
Taken: 4/25/2006

Dennis Barnell and Terry Kemp left a gold dollar coin in the finished concrete base. Dennis had tossed an additional coin deep into the foundation as the first load of concrete was poured.

Dennis Barnell, Terry Kemp, and Eric Martin prepare for the 200 guests who attended the Brick-Laying Ceremony, while Dee Grinenko and Penny Angel set up the lighthouse t-shirt display in the background.

Taken: 9/15/2007

Fred Stanley and Dennis Barnell. Fred is a long-time member of the SGLA Board of Directors and dedicated volunteer who helped clean bricks for the lighthouse and worked with Dennis on installing the interior wood in the Keeper's House.

Dennis Barnell and former State Representative Will Kendrick who was instrumental in procuring State of Florida funds for reconstruction of the lighthouse and development of Lighthouse Park.

SGLA President Dennis Barnell (on left) watches as Master of Ceremonies Jim Kemp unveils the Lighthouse Dedication Plaque.

(Photo by Jerry Murphy)

Taken: 4/4/2009